

Operose Advisors Welcomes Amanda Stark

MILWAUKEE, WISCONSIN – January 23, 2026 – Operose announced today that Amanda Stark, has joined the team as Vice President.

Amanda brings a tax-aware perspective to portfolio construction and financial planning. As an adviser, she will work with clients on retirement planning, cash flow analysis, and ongoing investment management, helping ensure their strategies are both thoughtful and tax efficient.

Prior to joining Operose, Amanda led VFP Tax Services and served as an advisor at Vantage Financial, where she worked closely with clients on personalized planning strategies. Her background in tax planning allows her to thoughtfully connect investment, income, and tax strategies while guiding clients through evolving market conditions and life transitions.

Amanda holds a B.S. from Carroll University with a concentration in Accounting and Finance.
